

Alvin Halim

Chairman – Thailand and Laos Bilateral Committee Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (KADIN)

Alvin Halim is a prominent advocate for Indonesian trade and investment in ASEAN, with a strong focus on strengthening commercial relations between Indonesia, Thailand, and Laos. With a background in textile manufacturing and extensive experience in international trade and FMCG distribution, he brings deep market insight and operational expertise to cross-border business development.

He is the driving force behind the Indonesian Corner initiative—an impactful program that successfully introduced leading Indonesian consumer brands into the Lao market.

As Chairman of the Thailand and Laos Bilateral Committee under KADIN, Alvin works closely with industry stakeholders, government agencies, and diplomatic missions to foster bilateral partnerships, enhance market access, and promote sustainable trade and investment growth throughout Southeast Asia.
