

Axton Salim

Executive Director, Salim Group

Mr. Axton Salim is a Director of PT Indofood Sukses Makmur Tbk (Indofood), a leading Indonesian food company with operations spanning from the production of raw materials and their processing, to consumer products in the market. He is also a Director of Indofood's Consumer Branded Products business group, PT Indofood CBP Sukses Makmur Tbk (ICBP), which manufactures and markets a diverse range of consumer products including noodles, dairy, snack foods, food seasonings, nutrition and special foods, and beverages. He also heads the Dairy Division as well as Corporate Marketing Division.

He began his career in the Investment Banking Division at Credit Suisse Singapore. He subsequently joined Indofood Group, where he progressed from Brand Manager in the Snack Division to Assistant CEO of Indofood. He is also involved in various Salim Group ventures. Notably are Salim Group's partnership with NUS Enterprise for Block71 in Indonesia, which taps the synergies from the experience of NUS Enterprise and the entrepreneurial track record and passion of the Salim Group to create a community centre for tech startups, as well as Accelerice, an Indonesian-based food accelerator that empowers and scales up small medium businesses.

Mr. Axton Salim serves as Global Advisory Group Co-Chair of Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN) Business Advisory Group since 2014. Previously, he served on the Global Alliance for Improved Nutrition (GAIN) council from 2012 to 2014 and continued his involvement as a member of the GAIN Partnership Council (PC) from 2021 to 2023. As a member of the inaugural cohort of the Obama Foundation's Leaders: Asia-Pacific Program, he is committed to values-based leadership and community engagement. Since November 2020, he sits on the Advisory Board of Nanyang Business School at the Nanyang Technological University, Singapore. Most recently, he joined the Indonesian Employers Association (APINDO) as Head of Sustainable Development in July 2023.

He is a graduate of the University of Colorado with a B.S. in Business Administration.
