

Rules and Guidelines on the rights of shareholders to nominate candidates for the Bank's directorship

Objective

In recognition of the importance of the rights of shareholders and in adherence to good corporate governance, Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited (the "Bank") facilitates shareholder(s) in nominating candidates for directorship by establishing Rules and Guidelines as follows:

Rules and Guidelines

1. Shareholding Requirement for the Nomination of Candidates for Bank Directorship

A shareholder who holds, or a group of shareholders who collectively holds shares of the Bank with at least 5 percent of the total voting rights may propose the name of a person to be a candidate for the Bank's directorship.

2. Nomination of Persons and Details of Information Required for Consideration of the Nomination

2.1 A shareholder(s) as specified in item no. 1 may submit a proposal by using "Form to Nominate a Candidate for the Bank's Directorship" (Form B) attached herewith and providing information and supporting documents as follows:

- (a) Name, contact address and telephone number;
- (b) The evidence of shareholding, such as a certificate from a securities company or other evidence from the Stock Exchange of Thailand or Thailand Securities Depository Co., Ltd.;
- (c) Identification documents of the shareholder;
 - (1) Individual person: a certified copy of their national identity card or passport (for non-Thai citizens)
 - (2) Juristic person: a certified copy of a company registration certificate and national identity card or passport (for non-Thai citizens) of the authorized director;
- (d) Name and relevant details and information together with the consent and endorsement of the nominated person as prescribed by the Bank in the "Information Form of the Person Nominated to be Candidate for the Bank's Directorship"; and
- (e) Other relevant information (if any).

2.2 In the case where two or more shareholders have proposed the candidate together, each shareholder shall separately complete and sign Form B. Documents from all such shareholders shall be combined into one set and submitted together with all supporting documents as specified.

2.3 Shareholder(s) may submit the nomination from September 1, 2026 until November 30, 2026 to the Corporate Secretary at Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited, 333 Silom Road, Silom, Bang Rak, Bangkok, 10500, or inform the Corporate Secretary informally via e-mail: CorporateSecretary@bangkokbank.com before submitting the signed copy of the Nomination, together with relevant documents, to the Corporate Secretary at the aforementioned address by November 30, 2026.

3. Handling of the Proposal after Receiving from the Shareholder(s)

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will consider the qualifications and suitability of the nominated persons in accordance with the Bank's nomination process and present to the Board of Directors for consideration before submitting to the Bank of Thailand for approval. If the nominated person is approved by the Board of Directors and the Bank of Thailand, the Bank will nominate such person to be elected as director at the 2027 Annual Ordinary Meeting of Shareholders. The Bank's determination shall be considered final.

Remark: The Bank wishes to notify shareholders of the Privacy Notice which is posted at www.bangkokbank.com/en/Privacy-Notice. Shareholders may scan QR Code for details of Privacy Notice.
